

The Ethnicity Training Network

One day conference

Working with Minority Ethnic Communities

4th July 2007

Parkinson Building, University of Leeds

Conference aim: To support service providers and people on Partnership Boards who want to engage with minority ethnic communities and make policies work for them.

Presenters: Khalida Ashrafi, (Senior Policy and Programmes Advisor, Commission for Racial Equality),
Ghazala Mir (Senior Research Fellow, University of Leeds)
Kuldip Sohanpal (Equality and Diversity Manager, Leeds PCT)
Kashif Ahmed (Diversity Manager, Leeds Partnership Board)
The ROOOTS group (People in Action)

Workshops: The following workshops will be organised:

1. Race Impact Assessments in practice – Kuldip Sohanpal
2. Engaging with minority ethnic communities – Ghazala Mir
3. “We’re not really hard to reach” – The ROOOTS Group
4. Examples of Good Practice – Kashif Ahmed

Please note workshops 1 and 4 will only run once and cannot be booked together. Workshops 2 and 3 will be run twice.

All who attend will receive a briefing on “Communicating with Service Users from Minority Ethnic Communities” and a guide on how to carry out Race Equality Impact Assessments.

Please use the booking form to apply for a place and choose workshops.

A detailed programme and directions will be sent once you apply.

Lunch and refreshments will be provided.

Conference fee - £100. A small number of free places are available for people with learning disabilities and family carers working with under funded organisations.

The Ethnicity Training Network, Centre for Health and Social Care,
University of Leeds, 71-75 Clarendon Road, Leeds LS2 9PL.

Telephone: 0113 343 4832

email: medetn@leeds.ac.uk